Sat 5 April 4pm	Ensemble Aaru A reed quintet with extensive international experience, Ensemble Aaru was formed in June 2023 by principal players from the Auckland Philharmonia and Aotearoa's leading freelance artists. The performance breathes new life into classic repertoire with a programme that includes works from Vivaldi, Debussy and Gershwin.
Sun 4 May 4pm	Ristov Duo "Love, Passion & Romance" – a violin and piano recital that takes the audience on an exciting and emotional musical journey. The repertoire will explore different forms of love, including Brahms' Violin Sonata No. 2, Clara Schumann's Three Romances, Dellapiccola's Tartriniiana Seconda, and Ravel's masterpiece, the mysterious and highly passionate Tzigane.
Sat 31 May 4pm	Duo Vivo Featuring Miranda Adams (violin) and Tatiana Lanchtchikova (piano/accordion), Duo Vivo formed in 2003 and immediately found popularity through their CD Jealousy, tango music. Their programme provides a colourful contrast of classical, tango and gypsy music, plus a NZ composition written for them by John Elmsly.
Sat 28 June 4pm	John Chen* Winner of the 2004 Sydney International Piano Competition, New Zealand pianist John Chen returns home to present an all-French programme of chefs-d'oeuvre by Francis Poulenc, Henri Duparc, César Franck, Gabriel Fauré, and Camille Saint-Saëns.
Sat 26 July 4pm	Ghost Trio* The Ghost Trio, featuring Monique Lapins (violin), Ken Ichinose (cello), and Gabriela Glapska (piano), explore the cultural diversity of the piano trio canon, including works by Ludwig van Beethoven, Tōru Takemitsu, Maurice Ravel, and the premiere of a new work by Aotearoa composer Glen Downie.
Sat 30 August 4pm	Fellowship Ensemble* A group of young musicians on the cusp of professional careers are selected by audition to form an ensemble at the 2025 Adam Summer School for Chamber Music. The yet-to-be-named ensemble will receive professional development from Chamber Music New Zealand and the New Zealand String Quartet.
Sat 11 October 4pm	The John Rae Trio Jazz composers and musicians John Rae, Ben Wilcock and Patrick Bleakley have produced a stunning new album entitled Splendid Isolation, described as "beguiling" (PBS The Modernist). The trio will play material from this album as well as new material and music from John Rae's previous albums.
